Bagels/Pizza On Us will be temporarily suspended until UHP relocates to the library.

Have You Voted?

Regardless of the result, November 4 of 2008 will be a historic day that has significant impact on our futures, the futures of our communities, the country, the economy, the environment, and the world that increasingly resembles a metropolitan neighborhood.

Don't be swept up by history—
MAKE HISTORY OF YOUR OWN!!

Have you been in touch with your UHP peer mentor?

Have you come to any of UHP events recently? If you haven't, any time is a good time to be active in the UHP community. This community exists because of and for you—Get involved and you can help create a community culture of which you are proud.

Breakfast Seminar with Jim Ellis

As UHP members, you are invited to join UHP's next speaker Jim Ellis for breakfast on Wednesday November 19 at 8:00 am, the morning after his Michael and Nancy Glassman lecture. To sign up, please come to FANER 3341 or email us back at honpub@siu.edu with your name, major, contact email and phone number and indicate whether you have special dietary preference or needs (e.g., vegetarian/vegan).

You'll be notified to pick up the BFS information packet, which includes the film Pride (DVD), a story based on Jim Ellis's personal experience. Watch the trailer:

2009 USA TODAY All-USA College Academic Team

The annual program honors full-time undergraduates who not only excel academically but also extend their intellectual abilities beyond the classroom to benefit society. Students named to the USA TODAY All-USA College Academic First Team will be featured in USA TODAY in March 2009 and will receive trophies and cash awards of $2,500.

Eligibility

The USA TODAY All-USA College Academic Team program is open to full-time undergraduates of at least junior standing at four-year institutions in the United States or its territories. Students must be nominated by their schools and be willing to be presented in USA TODAY as a representative of all outstanding students. Schools may nominate as many students as they consider appropriate candidates for this award.

Criteria

Criteria include grades, academic rigor, leadership, activities and most important, the student's essay describing his or her most outstanding intellectual endeavor done while in college. The USA TODAY All-USA College Academic Team is an award honoring students for what they have accomplished as undergraduates.

For more information or to download a nomination form, log on to <https://www.all-usanomination.com> (only electronic nomination forms will be accepted). All nominations must be received by 11:59 pm E.T. December 12, 2008.
