

Welcome to Southern Illinois University Carbondale

Welcome to the SIUC family. Every member of the campus community makes important contributions on a daily basis, and I am confident each of you will use your unique talents to make a positive difference.

We are committed to excellent teaching, research and service. And we are committed to safety, open communication and respect for one another in the workplace.

Whatever your role, your efforts will contribute to the success of our students, the University and the communities we serve.

Thank you for joining us.

Sam Goldman
Interim Chancellor
